Why Study The Bible?

Why should we study the Bible? Why does the church offer Bible classes on both Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings? Why should we study the Bible in our homes? Because it is the inspired, infallible, inerrant, all-sufficient and completely and totally authoritative word of the same living and true God who created the heavens and the earth (Gen. 1: 1; 1 Thess. 1: 9). The Bible is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path (Ps. 119: 105). It is God's word of truth (Jn. 17: 17) that sets us free (Jn. 8: 32). The Bible is inspired by God and makes us complete (2 Tim. 3: 16-17).

Let me ask the following questions. (1) How are we going to understand God's will if we do not understand the Bible? (2) How are we going to understand the Bible if we do not understand the words of the Bible? (3) How are we going to understand the words of the Bible if we do not study the words of the Bible?

Now let me make an observation, ask a question (or two) and cite a Scripture. A superficial study of the Bible will produce only a superficial faith. Are we satisfied with that? Is God? What does God say to that? "Be diligent (study) to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing (handling aright) the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2: 15). The key is the approval of God. Approved because of what? Because we rightly divide the word of truth. How do we make certain we do that? By being diligent in our study of the word of truth. Are we?
