Well done good and faithful servant.

And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:24-25

I am excited about this upcoming week! First we have the opportunity to hear our very own Cody Davis along with the Faulkner Chorus perform Wednesday evening from 6:00-7:00pm. This is always a great opportunity to support Cody and Faulkner University.

Next Sunday, we have our annual Friends and Family Day followed by Kite Day. We will begin the day with our worship service at 9:00am, followed by classes at 10:00, a fellowship meal at 11:00, and our kite day activities to follow. This is always a fun day of fellowship that is enjoyed by every age group.

Here at Southern Hills, we have one of the most loving and supportive church families. Jennifer and I see this on a regular basis with how our members care for one another when we are hurting, rejoice in times of celebration, and lift each other up in prayer. So many people continually do things quietly, behind the scenes, so to speak because they love God and love one another and have servant hearts. What better time to honor this family's spirit than with this upcoming week and these very special events geared to our church family? What better time to share your church family with your family and friends?

My challenge to each of us is to invite three people to hear the Faulkner chorus, stay for our Bible classes on Wednesday, and to come back on Sunday for our friends and family day followed by kite day. On the table in the foyer, we have cards printed to give important information regarding friends and family day. I want to encourage us to not just use these to inform, but to invite those that mean the world to us to share the most important part of our world. - Andy
