Well done good and faithful servant.

On Dec. 25 each year, multitudes of children wait expectantly for their names to be called as their parents read the tags on gifts taken from beneath the tree. Beneath the tree of Calvary, there is a gift waiting to be opened. The tag says it is from your Father. It is an unspeakable gift that steals the breath of those who hear its contents whispered. It is more precious than silver and gold or anything money can buy. On the tag, written in red, is your name. Forgiveness is the greatest gift of all because it is the ultimate expression of love. Those who receive this gift are encouraged to share it with others. There is no need to hide it or hoard it because the supply is renewable and inexhaustible. Enjoy the gift. Share the gift. Thank God for his unfathomable gift (2 Corinthians 9.15). — AJ
