I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. Romans 12:1-2

2018 was a year of change for Jennifer and myself. In August we sold our house in Chapel Hill and moved to Spring Hill for a few months while building a house in College Grove. During the process of moving and cleaning out years of accumulating things, we found ourselves repurposing items and furniture in a different way in our own house or finding someone who could repurpose things and use them in their own way.

As 2019 begins, this is a good time to “repurpose” ourselves spiritually. Southern Hills has all types of devotionals, classes and activities to grow spiritually both together and as an individual.

My challenge to each one of us is to “get in the Bible school habit”. Commit ourselves, and our families, to take advantage of the classes that are being offered on Sunday morning and Wednesday evening. Devotionals are happening every week as well! Breakfast with Dan is the first Tuesday of each month, the ladies class meets every Wednesday morning at the building, our ladies have a monthly evening devotional the first Monday night of each month, our young professionals have a devotional the third Monday night of each month and our KFC and youth groups have devotionals throughout the year. We have the nursing home singing at NHC the 4th Sunday of the month and devotionals for Morning Point in Franklin. The ladies are enjoying a more intense devotional study utilizing Cindy Colley’s Digging Deep series and meet monthly for podcasts and discussion. There is an opportunity for each of us to be involved in a devotional throughout the month.

In addition to all the opportunities to study with each other throughout the month, there is also times to fellowship and enjoy each other’s company. The Share group will enjoy an activity each month, our Shrimp and young family groups will spend time together throughout the year, the YoPro group eats dinner together each Sunday and Wednesday evenings and finally the youth group and the KFC groups will spend time in service and fun activities.

2019 is shaping up to be a big year for Southern Hills! We have a variety of activities and devotionals planned. My prayer is for each person to take advantage of the classes and devotionals as well as the activities we have planned as we continue to grow stronger in our faith and stronger in our relationships with each other.
