The Loving Path

Life is a journey. Each day of your earthly trek presents a new set of challenges on the road to Christlikeness (Ephesians 4.11-13). When met by loving choices, those opportunities bring joy and blessing. When met by unloving choices, they produce pain and regret. Sanctification and temptation are tools for mastering moments of decision in your life. Sanctification helps Christians make better choices. As you mature spiritually, it enables you to exhibit higher expressions of love. Temptation helps Christians assess their choices. It shows your progress on the pathway of love. Sanctification matures love. Temptation measures love. Together they move us further along toward our goal of loving like our Lord. So, where are you on the pathway of life? Are you headed in the right direction? To gauge your progress, ask, "How loving were my choices today?" — Aubrey

"I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth."
