Spreading Sunshine!

What makes Southern Hills so extraordinary? It is the way our members look for opportunities to share God's love with others. Sunshine School is a great example of this. Pouring Jesus' love into the hearts of preschool children is a joyful ministry that pleases God and blesses families (Matthew 19.14). Solomon said sunshine is sweet and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun (Ecclesiastes 11.7). How much more when that sunshine is God's Word (Psalm 119.105). It takes a lot of people to make a program like this work. In addition to great administrators (thanks Laura and Mindy), and caring teachers (teachers who attend SH include Alaina, Dana, Debbie, Jennifer, Mandy, Nikki, Shana, Sharon, and Wilma), there are also the board members that provide guidance to keep everything running smoothly. Four of the board members are pictured below: Chris Graham, Linda Cottrell, Barbara Jones, and Vi Waldrep (Dave Sweeney, Jane Woodroof, and Len McKnatt are also board members). Sunshine School board members were busy greeting guests and serving refreshments following the graduation ceremony Tuesday. Amazing people. Thanks to all. Well done. ☺
