Well done good and faithful servant.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. I Corinthians 15:58

What an exciting summer this has been at Southern Hills! We kicked it off with a great week at camp! We have had several who have committed their life to the Lord and were baptized. We recently had a fabulous VBS, which has continued over the past two weeks. This morning we have a team of about 35 from Southern Hills worshipping and conducting a VBS in Monroe, WI. Last weekend a different group of 35 were in Vienna, GA worshipping and conducting a VBS for the community there. Both of these efforts have been a breath of fresh air for each of these congregations.

I encourage each person here to find something to do for the Lord each day. Southern Hills has not been short on things to be involved in this summer. Cody Lovett and his team of volunteers did an exceptional job at making the race of life come alive and challenging all of us young and old to attack it with purpose and diligence. This is the same theme and challenge that was issued to the Vienna congregation and the Monroe congregation. The lessons that were presented were heart felt, challenging and sincere.

Many of us are aware of the Berry Farm's Farmers market that is held every Tuesday. This summer Southern Hills has had the opportunity to host a kids' booth and utilize this opportunity to advertise events, activities and to make our neighbors aware of who we are. We have had a great response from the attendees to the market as well as the market coordinators. We had several families that we met through this effort attend our VBS, and we are continuing to reach out to these individuals. We have gained valuable insight into our area community. Thank you for your support!

Southern Hills is a congregation that is filled with tremendous talent and tremendous opportunity. My challenge to each of us is to continue to find something to do for the Lord each day.

This information packed series will be an intensive learning opportunity and we are STRONGLY encouraging congregations in middle TN to bring their youth groups.
