Blessed

In the Beatitudes, Jesus revealed the grounds of true happiness. "Blessed" (GK makarios) refers to a kind of joy or bliss based not on your worldly position but on your spiritual condition. The key to lasting happiness is not wealth, pleasure, or fame. Blessedness is about the quality of your character rather than your standard of living. It is more about your soul than your body. Most of all, it is about your relationship with God. You are "blessed" when you live in favor with God and in harmony with His teachings.

In Revelation 14.13, John added these words: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." On this side of the grave, death means loss and bereavement. On the other side, it means gain and blessing. As we miss our brother, Wesley Fox, it is comforting to contemplate the blessings and happiness that are his at this moment. Paul said, "My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better" (Philippians 1.23). When you awaken in eternity, things are not just a little better. They are a great deal better! Talk about an understatement.

All the best things in this life and the life to come are found in Christ. Blessedness is "in the Lord," and "with Christ." If you want to die in the Lord you must first be buried with the Lord. Blessedness begins when you unite your life with Christ in baptism (Romans 6.3-4). It continues as you conform your life to His example (Galatians 2.20). That means happiness is within the reach of every person who desires it. So, how blessed are you? — Aubrey
