What Shall We Do

In Acts 2 Peter preached to the people who cried out for the Lord to be crucified. This obviously made an interesting sermon. Listen to what took place after Peter proved, through the working of God, that his words were true. Peter said, ‘Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.’ Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, ‘Men and brethren, what shall we do?’ (Acts 2:36, 37). When these individuals heard the truth, they were pricked in hearts and they asked “what shall we do?” Peter told them in the next verse that they needed to repent and be baptized. I want you to focus for now on the question they asked. What eventually led to their salvation is that they were not concerned with arguing or proving themselves right. They wanted to know what God wanted from them. Let us make sure this is always our desire as well. Let us ask “what shall we do?” and let us be willing to do it.

THANK YOU

Dear Family,
Thank you so much for the prayers, texts, cards, love and support as we walked Marcia through her last days. Thank you for the flowers as we celebrated her life, and thank you for the love shared with us since our return from Texas. It's hard when family is far away, but your unending compassion helps us walk the daily journey a little easier.

Love,
Teri & Dwayne Moore
