Balaam and Balak

In Numbers 22 we read of a prophet named Balaam and his discourse with Balak (the king of the Moabites). Israel was about to go into battle with the Moabites and Balak wanted Balaam to curse Israel. God told Balaam clearly that he was not to do that. Balak then offered Balaam money and Balaam did the right thing by turning it down. Balak then offered Balaam much more money and Balaam again refused. However, after thinking about it more Balaam changed his mind. The money was just too much for Balaam to refuse. So he ignored God's command and intended to do what Balak asked. The truth is that Balaam is not the only one throughout history to ignore God for money. Actually, this is something that takes place every day. Jesus said "for what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul" (Matthew 16:26). My prayer is that we all understand that nothing in this world is worth the value of our souls.

THANK YOU'S

To my Southern Hills Family,

Wendy (Reid) went to be with our Lord last Sunday night. She fought a long and courageous battle and has now received her reward. She was a light to this world and will be greatly missed. I would like to thank you for all the prayers and cards on her behalf over the past 5 yrs. She cherished each and every one. Please continue to keep her husband, Kyle and son Colton in your prayers.

Carol Comer

Dear Church Family

In Christian Love,
