Search the Heart

Jeremiah recorded the words of our Lord when He said “I, the LORD, search the heart, I test the mind, Even to give every man according to his ways, According to the fruit of his doings” (Jeremiah 17:10). This passage is one that should stick out in our minds. For those who live according to the words of our Lord it is a passage of great comfort. Sadly, many choose to live lives that oppose the teaching of Christ. For them this passage should bring fear. But all should have great confidence that when they give an account for their lives they will be judged fairly. My prayer is that all reading this are comforted by the fact that God will judge them. If you are not, then my prayer is that you will do what is necessary to be comforted by it.
