The Anchor of the Soul

What will keep a person faithful to God? The Hebrew writer said the answer to that question is “hope”. He wrote: “This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil, where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek” (Hebrews 6:19, 20). Hope, in this passage, is described as “an anchor of the soul.” I am sure we all know the purpose of an anchor. It is used to keep something from drifting. Anchors are often used in boats while they are on the water. Boat’s need anchors to keep from drifting. The same is true of our faith. It doesn’t matter if your faith is great or small you must have an anchor to keep you from drifting. That anchor is hope.
