True Love

The greatest gift that God has given mankind is love (I Corinthians 13:13). The love that Jesus demonstrated when He went to the cross for mankind is a remarkable kind of love. However that love does not take its full effect unless we learn from it and add it to our lives. Jesus said, "These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full. This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends. You are My friends if you do whatever I command you" (John 15:11-14). There are so many important lessons that can be taken from this text; but, what I want you to notice now is that Christ has given the commandment to love one another. However, Jesus did not stop there. Rather He continued to give a very sobering thought that we are only friends of Jesus if we "do whatever" He has commanded. Therefore, those who do not love one another are not friends of Jesus. Let us make sure that we take this command to heart and let us love one another as He loved us.
