Flee Youthful Lusts

I once heard a story about three teenage boys who went on a camping trip in the mountains. While walking on a mountain they came to a large cliff. Two of the three boys stayed away because they understood the danger that the cliff presented. However, one boy wanted to see exactly how deep the drop off was, so he walked closer to the edge. He knew it was dangerous but that did not deter him, his curiosity was too strong. When this young man came near the edge he slipped on some loose gravel. Had he fallen off the cliff he would have died. Thankfully, as he was sliding closer to the drop off, he was able to grab onto a nearby bush. He walked away unharmed. I bring this up because many do the same thing with sin. They try to get as close as possible without falling, tragically, this leads to the spiritual death of many. This is why Paul said "Flee youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart" (II Tim. 2:22). It should always be our aim to flee from sin and run towards righteousness.
