The Plans of the Diligent

We're now in the time of year where many are making "new years resolutions". Do you have any? I think it's always interesting to look back on the resolutions that I made last year and see if I fulfilled them. Sometimes I do...usually I don't. But there's a reason I don't fulfill many of the resolutions I make. Simply put...I'm hasty with them. I often come up with goals but fail to realize or give much thought towards what it will take to accomplish those goals. The Proverbs writer said, "The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty, But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty" (Proverbs 21:5). Let me encourage you to have important goals. Strive to grow your faith, to raise godly children, to be a godly spouse, to be a better neighbor, to share the gospel to more people, or many other admirable goals. But don't only set these goals, also, think about what it will take to accomplish them. If we hastily set goals, we set ourselves up for failure. Instead, let's set goals worth accomplishing and be diligent and determined to follow through. Happy New Year!
