A Humble Heart

Most of us are probably familiar with the account of Job in the Bible. He was a man who God blessed with many riches, good health, and a beautiful family. What we read about in this book is the time in his life when Satan put him through many trials. During those trials he lost just about all he had. To make matters worse, his friends accused him, saying that it was all his fault. When we get to the end of this book God restored to Job all his losses and much more. However, a point we often forget is “when” God restored to Job his losses. Job 42:10 says this “And the LORD restored Job's losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before”. They should have been there to console Job instead of accuse him. Their ignorance of God provoked Him to wrath and hurt Job (Job 42:7). I find it interesting that in order for them to find forgiveness Job had to pray for them (Job 42:8-10). For a man of bitter heart that would have been very difficult. The fact that Job so willingly prayed for his friends shows the humility he had. Let us all strive to have a heart like Job.

BIBLE BOWL PREPERATION

Our study of the book of Joshua has brought out details and facts of Bible characters most of the time we would gloss over and not give a second thought. Joshua 1:3 "Every place that your sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I said to Moses". The verb used here is past tense, meaning God has already given the land to them. The children of Israel simply had to follow the Lord's command and do what he said and the land would be theirs.

Joshua 1:16 Joshua was speaking to the officers of the tribes of Rueben, Gad and half of Manasseh telling them what their responsibility would be in conquering the land, since their land would be on the opposite side of the Jordan. Their response was "Just as we heeded Moses in all things, so we will heed you. Only the Lord God be with you, as He was with Moses. Whoever rebels against your command and does not heed your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and of good courage." The children of Israel showed their respect for Joshua and the Lord by verbally committing to holding themselves accountable to what the Lord said. They would self govern themselves and not tolerate anyone who did anything contrary to what the Lord commanded. One final phrase that consistently comes up in the book of Joshua is "be strong and of good courage". This was a constant reminder from Joshua to the people. He knew it would be difficult and the people would have to maintain their physical strength as well as their mental strength. We also need to apply this message to our lives being strong and courageous; maintaining our spiritual discipline as well as our physical discipline. We encourage everyone to spend time looking at the details of this book as we all prepare for Bible Bowl 2022!
