I Can Do All Things through Christ

When Paul wrote to the church at Philippi he said this “can do all things through Christ who strengthens me”. This is a great passage but I am afraid it is been misused and misapplied more often than not. Paul was speaking of the terrible persecution he faced as a man of God. There were times when he nearly starved to death, times when he was imprisoned, times when he was beat, and so many times where he was simply mistreated. However, Paul also faced good times, when he was full and had occasion to rejoice. The point he was making was that in any situation he found himself, whether it be a time of sorrow or a time of joy, he could remain faithful to God. The reason was not because of his great power and strength but because Christ was with him. He could do all things through Christ because Christ gave him the strength. Let me encourage you to always look to Christ for the strength you need to remain faithful. It is not always easy but with Christ it is possible.
