Be Someone Others Can Follow

When Paul wrote to the church in Thessalonica he showed the powerful impact of example. He wrote “And you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything” (I Thessalonians 1:5-8). Please notice how Paul said “the word of the Lord has sounded forth”. First, Paul was an example that the Thessalonians followed.

Then the Thessalonians became an example to those in Macedonia and Achaia and from there the word spread to “every place”. I am certainly thankful for those who have been and are great examples to me. My prayer is that I too can be someone others can follow. Let us all consider our example. Let us strive to live in a way so that God’s word will spread.

Dear Church Family,
Thank you for each encouraging thought, prayer, call, text, card, and goodies during my recent eye surgery. I am reminded of all your love and concern each time I look out my kitchen window which is lined with your cards! I appreciate you more than you will ever know.

In Christian Love,
Monica Wooten

To Our Wonderful Church Family,
There are not enough ways to say Thank You to each and every one of you who loved our wife, mom and Nan-nan. Nancy loved Southern Hills and we are beyond blessed and thankful for the outpouring of love you have showered us with as we mourn her. The prayers, flowers, food, cards, calls and texts have helped to get us through some of our toughest days. Thank you for loving her and us, and please continue to pray for us as we learn how to walk each day without her.

Love,
Ronnie, Katie, James,
