The Fear of the Lord

The Psalmist said “For as the heavens are high above the earth, So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; As far as the east is from the west, So far has He removed our transgressions from us. As a father pities his children, So the LORD pities those who fear Him. For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust” (Psalm 103:11-14). Obviously, there’s a lot in this passage that’s worth discussing. Unfortunately, we don’t have space to discuss it all. However, I would like to you to notice God’s demeanor towards those who “fear Him”. Often, in our world, those who are strong have little regard for the weak. People tend to hurt and take advantage of those they are stronger than. However, God is different. God does not use His strength and our weakness against us, rather, He uses His strength to help us. God show’s mercy and pities us in our weakness. But you also need to notice that His mercy and pity is towards those who “fear Him”. Let us always remember God’s strength and our weakness. Let us rely on Him so that He will do for us what we are too weak to do for ourselves.
