Desire Good For All

It is not unusual for people to act in mean and hurtful ways. It's natural to want to "get even" and repay them for the wrong they have done. Yet, listen to the words of Paul. He said "Repay no one evil for evil. Have regard for good things in the sight of all men. If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men. Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, 'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,' says the Lord. Therefore 'If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good" (Romans 12:17-21). The command given here is not an easy one to follow. It goes against our natural instincts. We must deny ourselves to follow it. As we strive to live as God has command, let us leave vengeance and retribution to God. Let us desire and strive to live peaceably with all.
