Christ and The Cross

Today's sermons are on Christ and the cross. The morning sermon is "The Cross of Christ." The evening sermon is "The Blood of Christ."

How important is the cross? Stephen Neill called the cross "the central point of history." Leon Morris said that the cross "dominates the New Testament." John Stott described the cross as "the greatest and most glorious of all subjects" and added that it is "the heart of the gospel." J.I. Packer referred to the Cross as "the center of our faith."

The cross confirms God's love for us (John 3:16-17); (1 John 4:9-10). First John says that God is love (1 John 4:16) and that we should love God "because He first loved us" (1 John 4:19).

Our love for God is our response to God's love for us. God loves us so much that "He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Corinthians 5:21).

God's Son loves us so much that "He Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree" (1 Peter 2:24). Jesus died on the cross so that we might have the remission of our sins and the hope of eternal life" (Matthew 26:28).
