Humility and Jesus

When Paul wrote to the church at Philippi his main point was that Christians should be humble. Humble people do good to others even at their own expense. This is because they see the value in other people and not just in themselves. Considering the humility of Jesus might be the most sobering thought in all of scripture. Paul said “Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.” If Jesus Christ, the Son of God, could humble Himself for us then certainly we can humble ourselves for Him.
