George Gershwin's popular opera, "Porgy and Bess," was written and first performed in 1935. The most memorable song from that production is "Summertime," whose opening line says, "Summertime and the living is easy." Easy? Maybe. But for Southern Hills summertime is always busy.

Summertime (for us) begins today with camp at Hy-Lake. It goes through Friday, June 7. Our annual Summer Series begins on Wednesday, June 5. It continues through August 28. A new Bible School quarter begins June 2. And please remember the blood drive on Friday, June 21.

July will also be a busy month. Our annual fireworks show in July 4. Vacation Bible School is July 7 through 10, with the VBS kickoff on Sunday, July 7, following the evening service. We have two mission trips scheduled for July. The first is to Monroe, Wisconsin (July 13-18) and the second is to Vienna, Georgia (July 19-21).

Summertime is going to be a busy time for Southern Hills. We hope everything will go well, and we pray that everyone will be safe in their travels and activities. Please remember that all we do is to be done to the glory of God (1 Cor. 10:31; Col. 3:17).

WCBC - Williamson County Bible Camp

This week around 200 of us will be at the beautiful camp Hy-Lake in McMinnville for our annual Bible Camp. We ask for prayers for a safe and spiritually uplifting week. We want to thank all of the many adults who have taken a week of vacation and are spending their time with our youth. If not for them, this week would not be possible. We will be attempting to update the facebook page daily - that often depends on internet reception. We also look forward to any visitors that would like to come up during the week.
