Marriage was instituted by God in the Garden of Eden. The same God who created the heavens and the earth also made man in His image and likeness (Genesis 1: 1, 26-28). God, who knew that it was not good for the man to be alone, made man a helper “comparable to him” (Genesis 2:18-25). It is God’s plan that a man should leave his parents and be joined to his wife in marriage ((Genesis 2:24).

God’s plan for marriage was supported by Jesus Christ, who quoted the verses cited above (Mark 10:6-9; Matthew 19:1-6). God’s divine plan is one man and one woman united for life in marriage.

The Apostle Paul also supported God’s plan for marriage (Ephesians 5:22-33; Colossians 3:18-19). Paul cited the words of Genesis 2:24 in Ephesians 5:31. He first gave divine instructions to the wife (Ephesians 5:22, 24), then gave God’s instructions to the husband (Ephesians 5:23, 25-33). In both cases God compared the relationship that is to exist between husband and wife to the relationship that exists between Christ and His church (Ephesians 5:32-33).

Marriage truly is a sacred institution, ordained by God in His inspired and authoritative word, the Bible. It is God’s divine will for mankind in the matter of marriage. God ordained three institutions: marriage and the family, government (Romans 13:1-7), and Christ’s church (Matthew 16:18). All three are important and precious to Him. They should be to us also.
