Endure

I, like many others, played football in high school. I have fond memories of those days but I also remember the hard work that it was at times. I don't remember everything my coaches told me but one thing seems to stick out in my mind. A had a coach who used to ask "what is integrity?" the answer he wanted is "to do the right thing when no one is looking". It's probably obvious to you why he would ask that questions. It was not unusual for players to do what they were supposed to do when the coach was looking. However, they often would not do what they were supposed to do when the coach wasn't looking. A person of integrity is someone who will do what is right whether someone is looking or not. This is not only important on a football team but it's an important principle of life. God desires us to be people of integrity. The proverbs writer said "better is the poor who walks in his integrity than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich" (Proverbs 28:6). When this world comes to an end and we are judged for the way we lived. Some will have been rich and others poor but that isn't going to make a difference in our judgment. However, our integrity will.
