God's Unchanging Message

Have you noticed how fast things change? When was the last time you went to the library to look something up in an encyclopedia? Have you rented a movie from Blockbuster lately or bought a book from Borders? What about a trinket from Woolworths or a computer from Circuit City? Businesses come and go at breathtaking speeds.

Have you "dialed" anyone on your phone recently? When is the last time you pulled out your Road Atlas? Or a floppy disk? How about an 8 track tape? Quarters to make a phone call? It will not be long until every license is digital; purchases will all be electronic; keys will no longer bulge in your pocket or get lost in your purse; cable TV will be a distant memory; newspapers will only be electronic; Mechanical watches will be viewed in museums.

Yet some things never become obsolete. Over 2000 years, the gospel has not changed or lost its power. Why? Because it is perfect. The gospel is the message of God's love, and His love is needed by every person on every continent in every generation. An angel of the Lord first declared these glad tidings to shepherds in the fields near Bethlehem. Half a century later, Paul carried the good news to the people of Europe. Today it is your turn to take the unchanging gospel to those you love (Mark 16.15-16). – Aubrey

Berry Farms Farmer's Market

On the 1st Tuesdays of the months of May-October - Southern Hills has been presented with a very unique opportunity to host a booth at the Berry Farms Farmers' Market. This booth will be geared to children and will follow the theme of healthy eating both physically and spiritually. This booth is a great chance to make connections not only in the Berry Farms community but in other local communities as well. We will need volunteers to help each month. We will provide activities for the children and will be handing out information for Southern Hills as well as Biblical information and lesson content. If you would like to help with this work or would like more information, please see Andy Miller.
