Be Kind

It seems as if many have forgotten, or maybe were never taught, how to treat other people. The crime rate in our society is depressingly high. So many are rude and inconsiderate to the feelings of others. Clearly, our world can be hard place to live. This leaves us wondering, what would life be like if everyone was nice, understanding, and friendly? What if everyone treated others the way they wanted to be treated? What if everyone obeyed the words of Paul when he wrote “And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you” (Ephesians 4:32)? We call those the words of Paul because he wrote them down; however, they did not originate from him. Those are the words of God and they should be taken very seriously. Let us all be kind to one another.

- Garrett Bookout
