

Bible Bowl 2014

...from Andy Miller

We want to congratulate all of participants in this year's annual Bible Bowl in Cookeville. We are so proud of all our youth group and the hard work they put into studying. We had 8 teams representing Southern Hills. One Junior team consisting of Natalie Comer, Claire Harrub, Peyton Waggoner and Perry Rodgers made it to the sweet sixteen round. One senior team consisting of Kendell Hardison, McKenna Hardison, Will Harrub and Emma Plunk made it to the third round of competition and placed third overall. Natalie Comer, Kendell Hardison, Aidan Broome and Will Harrub all scored over 90. Connor and Riley Pratt achieved ten consecutive years of participation.

ADVENTURE

What is an adventure? According to Webster the noun refers to "an exciting or remarkable experience." The verb means to proceed upon something. Life is filled with adventures. An adventurer may climb a mountain or swim a great distance or do any number of things to experience an adventure. But there is one adventure that is greater than any of the others, in fact more important than all of the others. What is it? That is the topic of today's sermon.

Linda and I had a great time in Alaska. We want to thank you and the elders for allowing us to have the time away to see that beautiful land. But, as I have said before, the best part of being away is coming home. We flew into Nashville a few minutes before midnight last Sunday night. The lights of Music City were a welcome sight!

I want to thank Brad Harrub, Andy Miller, Daniel Winkler and others who substituted for me while I was away. I hear that everyone did an excellent job. Linda and I are back into the routine now.

Jack Honeycutt, who works with the India Missions work, is our guest speaker tonight at 6:00 PM. That work is supported in part by Southern Hills and we are always glad to have Jack here. He and I have been friends a long time. In fact he was a student in some of my classes when I taught at the Nashville School of Preaching. Welcome, Jack!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Team A, the Herb Jones team, will meet to-night after the evening service.

Ladies Bible Class and Mens Prayer Group will meet Wednesday morning at 10am.

Amy Warren responded to the invitation last Sunday asking for the prayers of the congregation. Please keep Amy in your prayers.

MISSIONS MEETING

There will be a Mission Committee Meeting today at 4:30 in the library. Jeff Rhodes can answer your questions.

THANK YOU. . .

Dear Christian Friends at Southern Hills: Just a note to thank you for the get well cards and support, thoughts and prayers over the last months. Bob is making small steps in getting better. He enjoys company, so keep him in your thoughts.

Sincerely, LaNelle Bufford

Dear Southern Hills Family: I just wanted you all to know how much I deeply appreciated all of your cards, phone calls, flowers, meals and words of encouragement after my dad's passing. My dad always told me how much he appreciated all the cards you sent after his heart attack in January. It truly meant a lot to him. Please continue to pray for me and my family during this extremely difficult time.

All My Love, Heather Baker
