Love and Purity

When Paul wrote to the Ephesians, he encouraged them to pay special attention to the way they walked. He wrote, “Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God” (Ephesians 5:1, 2). So apparently, being “imitators of God” demands that we “walk in love.” Yet, some confuse “walking in love” with promoting all sexual relationships. It is interesting that the very next verse clarifies this by saying, “But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints” (Ephesians 5:3). Therefore, walking in love does not promote sexual immorality and impurity, rather, it forbids it. This Sunday we are discussing purity. Let us make sure that we understand that living sexually pure lives is a way to show love to our God and our neighbors.
