Resurrection as Motivation

When Paul wrote to the church at Corinth, he addressed many of their problems. One issue he addressed was false teaching concerning the resurrection of the dead. He taught that the result of Christ's resurrection is the resurrection of mankind. Not only that; but Paul also described how wonderful it will be when that happens. So, he concluded his remarks on the resurrection by saying this "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (I Corinthians 15:58). The church in Corinth had a lot of problems they needed to fix. The resurrection should serve as motivation. Let it also motivate us.

MISSIONS MEMO...

Kilimanjaro Mission • Noel Stafford & family • Tanzania

Evangelism is going strong both in Moshi and Boma Ng'ombe. Local Christians always participate, and we are so grateful for their untiring devotion. In April, we celebrated 3 baptisms resulting from our outreach programs.

The radio program continues to create study contacts and we are receiving many questions from listeners. One of our new sisters, Monica, is the caretaker for several street children. She diligently brings them to church every Sunday. The children love attending Bible class and pay attention in worship services, as well. This is such a wonderful opportunity to teach them at a young age.

While back in the United States recently after having spent 2 straight years in Tanzania, we thoroughly enjoyed our time visiting with the Southern Hills congregation.

We rejoiced recently to witness 3 more baptisms! We welcomed Esther, Ana, and Simon into the fold of Christ. Please keep them and all the new converts in your prayers.

Kilimanjaro Missions is available on
