HARVEST

Fall is here! The leaves are already beginning to change colors. The days and nights are getting cooler. "It is football time in Tennessee!" The farmers are getting ready to harvest their crops. It is a wonderful time of the year.

Over the next three months we would like to have a harvest at Southern Hills. I am talking about a harvest of souls as people obey the gospel of Christ. With that thought in mind I have planned a series of sermons to be preached over the next several Sunday mornings that I hope will help us have such a harvest. (The evening sermons will be from 2 Timothy and the Gospel of John.)

There will be sermons on the power of the gospel of Christ, the inspiration and authority of the Bible, the problem of sin, the solution to that problem (Christ), the Christian life, and the church. I hope you will be here for every sermon. Bring your Bible. Bring your family. Bring your friends. These sermons are for everyone, especially for those who are not Christians.

The sermon this morning is "The Gospel of Christ" (Rom. 1.16). It will make five points. (1) The gospel is "good news." (2) It is from God. (3) It is powerful. (4) It brings salvation. (5) It demands an obedient faith. Tonight's lesson is "Servants of the Lord" (2 Timothy 2.24-26). Its discusses (1) The characteristics of the servants of the Lord and (2) the outcomes. See you then!
