The Humility of Jesus

When Paul wrote to the church at Philippi, he stressed humility. The humble do good to others even at their own expense.

This is because they see value in others and not just in themselves. Considering the humility of Jesus might be the most sobering thought in all of scripture. Paul said "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross." If Jesus Christ, the Son of God, could humble Himself for us then certainly we can humble ourselves for Him.

MISSIONS MEMO...

Warner Hailey Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies

This is a wonderful time of month for me to reflect on how my semester has gone and the reason I am here in the first place. The school year has been outstanding and productive for me, and I have been given more than I could ask for regarding my education.

My class finals will be in October so don't forget to pray for me during that time.

Casey and I are still preparing for a wonderful child (whose gender we will reveal in the next letter) to enter our household. I know that the only reason that I am blessed to be here to study God's word is because of all of you.

My wife and I are extremely thankful that through God's providence and your love for the truth you have been supporting us through financial, emotional, and supportive needs. I am thankful that you, just like me, saw a great need for preachers, and I am pleased that God could use me in this way for his kingdom.
