Personal Responsibility

We often feel uncomfortable admitting fault. It is not unusual to place our blame on other people. Yet the Bible teaches personal responsibility for sin. Ezekiel wrote, “The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself” (Ezekiel 18:20). Others might be bad examples and influences. Others might even tempt us to do wrong. But I have a personal responsibility to fight that temptation and I might even have to run from it. Realizing that my sin is my fault is the only chance I have to fight against it.
