~ Great Contribution ~

We want to thank all of you who helped Southern Hills have the great special contribution it had last Sunday. It was over $61,000. We could never have done it, of course, without the support of so many of you. This contribution will go a long way toward paying off the mortgage on the church building, which will in turn free up more money to be used in other ways in the Lord's work. However, those of us who have been at Southern Hills for any length of time know that this church is supportive of "every good work" (2 Cor. 9: 8). Again, thank you!

Soon the elders will present the 2013 budget to the congregation. We hope you and your family will be here for that presentation. We are excited about this new year and the privileges and opportunities it affords us. Please pray for the work at Southern Hills, for every work in which we have a part, and for the Lord's work everywhere.

Today in the morning sermon we will focus on the continuing need for evangelism. We must reach out into this growing community with the saving gospel of Jesus Christ. We are for "every good work" everywhere, but we must be especially interested in and devoted to preaching the gospel to our community and the surrounding area.

If you and your family do not stay for Sunday Bible School, please develop that habit beginning today. In a world so confused and struggling we must be "armed for the fight" (as the song says). Please be in Bible School!

~ Dan Cottrell
