The Love of God

One of the great “love passages” in the Bible is found in Paul’s epistle to the Romans. Paul taught “For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:6-8). The argument Paul made for the love of God is amazing. If it were the case that you had to die for someone, your willingness to do so would probably be based on your relationship with that person. Death is often called the “ultimate sacrifice” because you can never recover from it. That is why it’s a sacrifice that few are willing to make. The thought of dying for an ungodly person is hard to take. Yet that is what Christ did. He did not wait for us to love Him, rather He first offered Himself. This now gives us reason to love Him. What great love God has for us, let us return our love to Him.
