“Whatever the LORD says”

Micaiah is not among the most well-known prophets in the Old Testament; however, the little that we know about him is really important. He was a prophet of God who was known for his honesty. Sadly, many who claimed to be prophets would lie and tell kings (or others in authority) whatever they wanted to hear. Micaiah was different. He would always tell the truth that he heard from God. Ahab, the king of Israel, said “I hate him because he does not prophecy good concerning me” (I Kings 22:8). The reason Micaiah was so honest was stated a few verses later when he said “As the LORD lives, whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak” (I Kings 22:14). Micaiah was not trying to win a popularity contest. He seemed to be very aware of the fact that the things he said made him hated by the king. However, his only concern was to speak the word of God. What a wonderful example for people of all generations. Let us make sure that our desire is to speak the word of God.

BROTHERS MEN'S RETREAT

The third annual BROTHERS Men's Retreat will be held May 1-3 @ Deer Run Camps in Thompson's Station, TN. It will be a weekend dedicated to becoming the men God calls us to be in evangelizing our world as we focus on "20/20 Vision - Seeing Souls Through the Eyes of God." We will spend time considering the lost souls around us, encouraging our efforts to reach those lost souls and preparing to be effective in communicating the gospel of Jesus Christ. Visit www.brothersmensretreat.com for more information and to register. See Matt Lyndoe or Jon Ferrie with any questions.

I would like to thank our Lord for guiding me to Southern Hills Church of Christ where I was greeted with warm welcomes from all the people who call this beautiful structure their church home. You all made me feel right at home from that very first Sunday and have continued to help me become baptized to continue to lead a Christian life. Thank you all for your cards, well wishes, greetings and your explanations of which I know so little. I have truly found my church home. Thank you all for helping me find home!

Sincerely,
Gina Lewis
