More than Just Words

When Jesus was in conversation with the scribes and Pharisees He said “Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying: These people draw near to Me with their mouth, And honor Me with their lips, But their heart is far from Me. And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men” (Matthew 15:7-9). Jesus doesn't want lip service. He is not satisfied with us simply saying we love Him and are followers of Him. He does not want people to simply go to church every Sunday and go through the motions of worship. What Jesus wants is people who truly love and serve Him. People who not only call Him Lord but they also treat Him as Lord. Let us make sure that our worship is more than just words.

Bible Bowl is quickly approaching! Joshua is the chosen book for this year. The twenty-four chapters are filled with details describing the conquest of the Israelites conquering the promised land.

The book begins with the death of Moses and Joshua being named by the Lord as the leader of the Israelite nation. (Joshua 1:2) Joshua readily accepts this appointment by the Lord and tells the officers to go through the camp and command the people to prepare to cross the Jordan. (Joshua 1:11)

Joshua leads the people through victory and defeat, but never lets his faith falter. The Lord told him in the beginning "I will never leave nor forsake you." (Joshua 1:5) And Joshua held onto that promise throughout the rest of his of his life. In Joshua's farewell address to the people he says "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord". (Joshua 24:15)

The Lord also told Joshua the land he will be leading the people into, he has already given to the children of Israel. (Joshua 1:2) The same promise he has made to us, if we live lives obedient to the Gospel. (II Corinthians 5:1) I encourage you to join our Bible Bowl participants in reading through the book of Joshua, as we follow the children of Israel throughout their conquest of the promised land.
