Motivated by Love

The apostle Paul said, "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing" (I Corinthians 13:1-3). The apostle Paul was a man who gave his life to the Lord and worked tirelessly for the church. He was a man who God worked many miracles through and a man who, through God, accomplished so much good. Yet he said that all the good things he did and even the miraculous gifts that were bestowed on him would be absolutely pointless if he did not have love. Thus Paul once again highlighted the great importance of love. Let us make sure that everything we do is motivated by love.
