Deliver Us From The Evil One

When Jesus taught His disciples to pray He gave them an example. He said in His “model prayer” “Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors. And do not lead us into temptation, But deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”

There’s a lot we can learn from this prayer but I’d like you to focus on one particular phrase. Jesus asked the Father to “deliver us from the evil one.” Interestingly He also taught how this can be done. Jesus prayed “lead us not into temptation”.

James, the brother of Jesus, wrote that “temptation” is what causes us to sin and that sin brings death (James 1:13-15). Let me ask you “when was that last time you prayed that you would not be tempted?” Sometimes we pray for strength to fight against sin and even to be forgiven when we do sin. Sadly, often conclude those prayers and then put ourselves in the same tempting situations that caused us to sin in the first place. Let us learn from Jesus and not only fight sin but also run from temptation. That way we can be delivered from the evil one.
