Motivated by Faith

There is no doubt that belief is a major topic in the Bible. The Hebrews writer said “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (Hebrews 11:6). When I read this passage, I ask myself “what motivates me to do the things I do?” Isn’t it interesting that that two different individuals can do that same thing and yet God will be pleased with one and not pleased with the other? The passage above says that “without faith it is impossible to please Him.” So someone might preach the gospel, feed the poor, attend worship, or do a number of other good deeds; but, if those things are not done in faith God is not pleased. Some do good things but they are motivated by recognition or financial gain; therefore, they will never be pleasing to God. To please God one must act out of faith. Let us all make sure that we do good because we believe that God is and that he rewards those who diligently seek Him.
