Judge Not!

Jesus taught a lot. Unfortunately, most of what He taught is not known in our world. However, there are a few passages in the Bible that almost everyone knows. Quite possibly, His most famous instruction is “Judge not, that you be not judged” (Matt 7:1). This is an interesting passage that draws a lot of emotion and debate. Some have understood it to mean more than Jesus intended. Some don’t seem to think it means anything at all. However, Jesus taught that our judgment of others determines our own judgment. Clearly, it is an important passage. It is the passage that we will discuss this Sunday morning.

- Garrett Bookout

MISSIONS MEMO...

Colin and Lisa Graham
Bangor, Northern Ireland

Greetings from Northern Ireland! I hope all of you are doing well by the grace of God. Where would we be without Him?

In our last report I spoke about baptizing Matthew. I spoke about the struggles he has in life and how difficult some things have been for him. I am happy to report that he is doing very well.

Sure, he has some moments that are not as good as others (like all of us), but he is moving steadily forward by the grace of God. He actively participates and contributes into our Bible classes.

This also shows the wonderful purpose of faithful Christian parenting. His mom never gave up showing him God. When his life was in darkness, he was able to find the light, thanks be to God.

Our classes are going well. Sunday morning adult Bible class is focusing on "Conversational Bible Study." This class reviews major Biblical events, characters, and doctrines and seeks to help the congregation have a better working knowledge of them.

Another brother, Gary, is one of the members here. He was converted about 13 years ago. He is quiet, very spiritual, and evangelistic. A few months ago, he asked if he could help teach the Sunday morning Bible class. He has been doing a great job and I really want to help him develop as a leader. Please keep him in your prayers.

Good things are happening in Northern Ireland by God's blessing and your kindness.

Thank you for your prayers and support. They really mean a lot to us. May God bless you all at Southern Hills!
