Let Down Your Net

Luke chapter five records a very interesting story in the Bible. Peter, who was a fisherman, had been working all night. However, he did not have any success so he finished and was cleaning his net ready to go home. Jesus then came and told him to launch back out into the deep and cast down his net. Listen to Peter's response. Luke 5:5 says "But Simon answered and said to Him, 'Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net.'" Peter was probably tired because He had been working all night with no success. He was probably disappointed in his lack of success. However, when Peter was told to do something from the Lord he did it. Let us also have this same attitude. We might not always understand the commands of our Lord but let us always obey them.

Thank you so much for all the calls, texts, cards, food and prayers after Richard's fall. He will have a long road to recover and knowing our church family is praying for him will help us get through. We would love visits, just please call before coming.

Love,

Richard & Sue King

To my Brother's and Sister's in Christ,
Gail and I wish to thank you for the food, cards, visits and especially the prayers during my recent hospital stay. I truly believe I would not have been home as quickly without your prayers.

LADIES HOLIDAY GIFT GALA

For all of our ladies, we are planning to have our annual Holiday Gift Gala in December. If you would be willing or would enjoy serving as a table hostess – please let Jennifer Miller (615-390-6674, mvalleyhaven@aol.com) know as soon as possible. Table hostesses are responsible for the theme for their table as well as decorating their table. If you think you might be interested or would like more information – Jennifer would love to give you more info – send her a text or email or better yet – give her a call. This is such a fun event to kickoff our holiday season, but the table hostesses are who set the stage and make it a great event for all.

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PARENTS!!
