Press On

Paul wrote “Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:12-14). Notice how Paul’s humility allowed for personal growth. He knew that he was not “already perfected.” Therefore, he pressed on. Paul saw that he needed to “press toward the goal.” Let us also recognize the same for our lives. Let us not be content with what we have done or are doing but let us also “press on”.

Grandparents, parents, adult siblings, uncles, aunts, good friends, cousins, and dogs (if they can write with a pen) are invited to reward our kids, who are learning Bible principles, by judging their efforts. If you can only come on Friday, we can use you. If you can only come on Saturday, we can use you. If you want to come both days, we will say a special prayer for you! This will be happening over Easter Weekend at Opryland Hotel. If you have questions, please see Michele or John Pratt.
