Esteem Other Better Than Self

To follow God we must deny many natural desires we have. Probably the greatest example of this is the command to esteem others better than self. It is not natural to suffer for the good of others or to deny pleasure to help others. Yet Paul wrote “Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others” (Philippians 2:1-4). This is certainly difficult to obey but what a wonderful world this would be if all lived this way. Most won't obey God but let us make sure that we esteem others better than self.

SHARE GROUP

ATTENTION SHARE GROUP! Andy has planned a lunch trip for you on Friday April 30th to Miss Bobo's! As always, transportation is provided and cost for the total trip is $40/person, plan on leaving the building at 9:30am. If you are interested in going, please sign up in the foyer!

GRADUATES RECEPTION

Each year we honor our graduating high school seniors and our college graduates. Our 2021 Graduates Reception will be on May 16th after the evening service. We want to make sure that everyone is included. Please turn in your graduates' name to the church office by Sunday, April 18, 2021. This year especially, we need help identifying who our graduates are due to online, hybrid, COVID, and unusual school situations. The list currently includes: High School: Natalie Comer, Reese Harrub, Michael Marrison, and Noah Opperman. College: Katherine Broome, Gabby Dees, Ben Meade, and John Rhodes. Again, we do not want to miss anyone – so please let us know. Additionally, if you have a graduate – please send a few updated pictures to Jennifer Miller for décor items and programs. We also request that you send a mix of baby pictures, senior pictures, and fun pictures to Carrie Alden for our slide show.

Ribbon Drop Sunday

May 2, 2021

The ribbons will be gone from the auditorium! To celebrate we will have a catered, boxed-lunch meal after Bible class. All are invited to stay and eat with us, or take a box to go, we'll even bring it to your car!

For those still at risk...

We understand that not everyone is ready to take this step. We still want you to worship with us in person! We will have Room 100 set up for streaming our service and auditorium Bible class. Anyone who is at risk or is uncomfortable with crowds will be welcome to come in the side door, and worship with masks in place and distanced.
