~ This and That ~

Reports from Bible camp are that all went well. The major problems seem to have been the heat and the inability of the ice machine to provide enough ice fast enough for the campers. Some took extra ice to camp on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Perhaps others took ice on other days, also. We hope everyone had a great week.

I want to thank Ken Hardison for preaching for us at Southern Hills last Sunday morning and David Broome for teaching my Bible classes on both Sunday morning and Wednesday evening. The meeting at Fairview went well. It was good to be with those brethren, many of whom I have know for many years.

Today the morning sermon will be dedicated to husbands and fathers. Tonight we will study the Lord's letter to the church at Smyrna. The latter is a part of the study of Revelation that we are doing on Sunday mornings in the auditorium class.

Our annual Summer Series is only a little over two weeks away. This series will be on Wednesday nights during July and August. We have a good group of speakers who will discuss some very important subjects. We encourage you to be here for every lesson.

Please do not let yourself get so busy that you get into a "summer slump." Plan to be at every service of the Lord's church. Find a church or churches at which you can worship when you are away on vacation. It is so easy to get "too busy" during the summer months and momentarily forget that our number one commitment is to Christ and His church and work. Don't let that happen to you.
