“Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life.” John 8:12

After the spring semester in college, my brothers and I would go on a four day, three night hiking adventure in the Smoky Mountains. We would spend three nights on the trail getting away from the pressures of the semester and gearing up for a summer full of long hours at work. Some of my favorite memories from those trips are watching the light stretch among the mountains touching every part of nature for the first time that day.

This passage takes my mind back to those days of standing on the top of a mountain and looking over the top of the valleys and seeing the light reaching into some of the most hidden parts of the mountain range. Jesus is telling of how far His love reaches when he explains, He is the light of the world. No matter how dark of a time we may be facing, how difficult the decisions we have or how hard it may be to simply put one foot in front of the other, we are reminded of how far reaching God’s love is. Just like the light from the sun stretches down into the darkest places in the mountains, God’s love reaches down into the darkest places of our lives.

In the coming month, we will have plenty of opportunity to show our love to one another through various activities. Tonight after services, we will be showering Will Harrub and Rachel Tracey with gifts as they make plans to become a family and begin their lives together. Our Share group will be going to Disaster Relief on Thursday to learn about the work and the efforts made to show God’s love to people who have been devastated by natural disasters. Our youth group is finalizing the plans for the annual Valentines Banquet, February 9, as they honor those who are great Christian examples to us through all aspects of life. My prayer is that we all make plans to be an active part of Southern Hills. ~ Andy Miller

Lads to Leaders 2019

Lads to Leaders is a leadership training program for Pre-k to 12th grade. We spend time working on ways to utilize our talents for the Lord through speech, teaching, art, web design, writing, song leading, puppets, debate, and many other events. It culminates in a weekend long convention at Opryland Hotel, April 18-21, 2019. The theme for this year is "I Am." If you have not signed up online for Lads - please do so as soon as possible. Our first practice begins TODAY, and we need to have the information to better prepare our resources for your child. We will be making puppet and debate teams in the upcoming weeks as well as assigning mentors. If you need a hotel room, we can still get rooms, however, we are past the deadline so no changes can be made to existing rooms.
