SOUND DOCTRINE

What is sound doctrine? Is it important? Why? What does the Bible teach about it? Those are some of the questions we will ask today. Sound doctrine means healthy teaching. What is healthy teaching? That which is in harmony with the will of God. What, then, is God's will in reference to such teaching?

Note that the early church "continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine (Acts 2: 42). That was the doctrine or teaching taught by the apostles, who had been guided "into all the truth" by the Holy Spirit, "the Spirit of truth" (Jn. 16: 13). Likewise, the NT church today must teach the apostles' doctrine, that truth taught by the Holy Spirit through the apostles and the other inspired writers of the NT.

That truth is "the faithful word" which is "sound doctrine" (Tit. 1: 9). We are to "speak the things which are fitting for sound doctrine" (Tit. 2: 1). We are to "adorn the doctrine of God in every respect" (Tit. 2: 10). "The name of God and His doctrine are not to be blasphemed" (1 Tim. 6: 1). Our doctrine must "accord with godliness" (1 Tim. 6: 3). We must "give attention" to it (1 Tim. 4: 13). We must "take heed" to it (1 Tim. 4: 16). We must carefully follow it (1 Tim. 4: 6).

What is the basis for sound doctrine? The inspired word of God (2 Tim. 3: 16-17). It is profitable to us and furnishes us completely for every good work. Sound doctrine comes from and is based on the word of God.
- Dan Cottrell
