Scripture of the Week:

Luke 10 - John 6

Volume 30 Issue 43

FORGIVENESS

Forgiveness is “a disposition or willingness to forgive.” To forgive is “to cease to feel resentment against” someone. Forgiveness is one of the key concepts of the Bible. It begins with God. God forgives us of our sins through Jesus Christ and His blood shed on the cross (Ephesians 4:32). With God there is forgiveness (Psalm 130:4). Forgiveness comes from God through Christ (Acts 5:31; Acts 13:38; Acts 26:18; Ephesians 1:7; Colossians 1:14).

However, this article, while based on the fact that God forgives us of our sins through Jesus Christ, is not ultimately about God’s forgiveness, as basic as that fact is. This article is about our forgiveness of each other. That forgiveness is based on ---and is a result of---God’s forgiveness of us (Matthew 6:14-15). We are to forgive each other as long as we or they sincerely repent of those wrongs (Matthew 18:21-35; Luke 17:3-4).

In fact, our forgiveness by God requires our forgiveness of others (Mark 11:25-26). Two verses from Paul speak directly to the matter of forgiving each other when we wrong each other (Ephesians 4:32; Colossians 3:13). No Bible writer emphasizes this more forcefully than John. We are to love each other (1 John 4:7-8, 11-12). We are to love our brethren (1 John 4:20-21). To love is to forgive (John 3:16-17).

All of us make mistakes. All of us commit sins of both commission and omission. Be slow to condemn and quick to forgive. Jesus was (Luke 23:34). So must we be!
