Give Credit to God

Joseph is one of the more popular characters in the Old Testament. He was a man of great integrity and a man whose life taught many invaluable lessons. One lesson that we should learn from Joseph is that God deserves the praise for our abilities. You might remember when he was put into prison because of a false accusation made about him. While in prison he interpreted the dreams of a baker and butler. When word finally got around to Pharaoh, Pharaoh called on Joseph to interpret his dreams. He said to Joseph “I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it” (Genesis 41:15). However, Joseph’s response was not “yes I can.” Rather he said this “It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace” (Genesis 41:16). We all have abilities to serve the Lord in various ways. There are things you can do well that others cannot. Sadly this often causes pride. This is a shame because we only have our abilities because God has blessed us with them. Let us always remember that God deserves the praise for our abilities.

All members and visitors, please fill out the attendance cards in the back of the pews in front of you so we may have a record of your attendance.

TODAY is Ribbon Drop Sunday!

The ribbons are gone from the auditorium! To celebrate we will have a catered, boxed-lunch meal after Bible class. All are invited to stay and eat with us, or take a box to go, we'll even bring it to your car!

For those still at risk...

We understand that not everyone is ready to take this step. We still want you to worship with us in person! We will have Room 100 set up for streaming our service and auditorium Bible class. Anyone who is at risk or is uncomfortable with crowds will be welcome to come in the side door, and worship with masks in place and distanced.

BREAKFAST MEETING

On Saturday May 15th all Elders, Deacons, and Ministers are invited to a Breakfast Meeting.

Breakfast will be served at 8am and the meeting should wrap up around 10:30am.

CAMP STAFF MEETING

Following our rope drop festivities, we will have our camp staff meeting to go over the changes to our week at camp for 2021. Concord Road and Millview staff will be joining us. This will be a good time to meet with the other counselors and start planning for a great week at camp!
