New Bible School Curriculum

We have a new Bible school curriculum. A team of volunteers has spent a year working on it. It is our goal to take our students through the entire Bible four times from PreK to sixth grade.

Those who have written the new curriculum are:

- PreK - Mindy Doughtie & Jaynie Floyd
- K - Rachel Haedge & Sharon Broome
- 1st Grade - Judy Russell & Carol Comer
- 2nd Grade - Judy Pritchett & Ashley Helm
- 3rd Grade - Linda Cottrell
- 4th Grade - Jeanna Rice & Ashley Pratt
- 5th Grade - Kendra Rodgers & Wilma Cooley
- 6th Grade - Ken Hardison & Len McKnatt

Each Sunday's Bible lesson will have a memory verse, a lesson from God's Word, activities connected to the lesson, and a take home activity to prepare for the next week's lesson. On Wednesday nights we will do an overview of the memory verse and lesson and then have a fun activity and/or game.

There will be other memory work on which we will concentrate throughout the year such as learning the books of the Bible, the names of the apostles, etc. The memory work will be age appropriate, and it will relate to the subject material taught each quarter.

We are very excited about our new curriculum. We want you as parents to become involved in your child's learning by spending at least 30 minutes a week with your child completing the take home activity to prepare them for each week's lesson.

On August 29 during the last 10 minutes of class, your child will be promoted to his/her new class. We ask that you come to the classroom with your child in order to learn the expectations for this year.
